

Life And Breath

The Whispers

You are life and breath to me, ooh...

If you believe in dreams enough
Then they'll believe in you
That's what you used to tell me
So I know it must be true
So day after day
I'm dreaming you'll come back to me

'Cause you are life and breath to me
Oh, the rest of me
Belongs to you, belongs to you
Oh, you are life and breath to me
Oh, the rest of me depends on you

They say I should be forgetting you
But how can I forget the moon and the stars
Or the heavens so blue
'Cause they're all just a part of

You are life and breath to me
Oh, the rest of me depends on you

If you believe in love enough
Then love will never die
That's what you used to tell me
So how can it be alive
So time after time
I'll come here, I'll wait for you
I guess I'll always wait for you

'Cause you are life and breath to me
Oh, the rest of me
Belongs to you, belongs to you
Oh, you are life and breath to me
Oh, the rest of me
Depends on you, depends on you...
