

Misunderstanding

The Whispers

We've been together and you know how hard we try
So why would you just keep your feelings inside
Don't understand what people say to make you feel
My heart, my mind, my soul, my love ain't for real

Girl, you've got to understand me
I'm not a flirt, I never had another lover
And the love is my witness
That all the things you're hearing people sayin'
Just ain't true

People sayin' that you think
That I am never lonely
(You better understand)
People sayin' that you think
But I think they just don't know
I feel that you think
That you can never really, really trust me
Well, I feel and I know
You got a big misunderstanding

Sometimes I wonder what I did to break your heart
Please don't let this change the way things are
I tried and tried to tell you how I'm feeling
You've got to understand it's my heart you're killing

Girl, you've got to understand me
I'm not a flirt, I never had another lover
And the love is my witness
You gotta believe me when I say it

People sayin' that you think
That I am never lonely
People sayin' that you think
But I think they just don't know
I feel that you think
That you can never really, really trust me
Well, I feel and I know
You got a big misunderstanding

You better believe me when I say it

People sayin' that you think
That I am never lonely
People sayin' that you think
But I think they just don't know
I feel that you think
That you can never really, really trust me
Well, I feel and I know
You got a big misunderstanding

Whispers, let me hear you sing

You gotta, hey
You gotta, oh...
Ooh, you gotta
Ooh, you gotta

Ooh, you gotta
You got a big misunderstanding

People sayin' that you think
That I am never lonely
People sayin' that you think
But I think they just don't know
I feel that you think
That you can never really, really trust me
Well, I feel and I know
You got a big misunderstanding

People sayin' that you think
That I am never lonely
People sayin' that you think
But I think they just don't know
I feel that you think
That you can never really, really trust me
Well, I feel and I know
You got a big misunderstanding...
