

What Will I Do

The Whispers

Why don't we stay
Why don't we stay
(Well, well, well, well, oh, baby)

What will I do if you leave me, yeah
And where will I go, I'd like to know
Without your guiding hand
I find I'm less than a man
And without your tender touch
Life don't mean very much

What sin can be worth
Ooh, and the pain I feel on this earth
What don't get dirty, dirty deep
Can cause me such misery
I've been in love with you
Since one and one has equaled two
So my darling, please explain
Oh, what am I gonna do without you
Ooh-oo-oo, yeah, yeah

You know you said in the beginning
You told me that our love would have no ending
You said that you wish there's a sun
I'd be the only one, mama
And I gave you my soul on a silver platter
Only to find that it really, really didn't matter

What am I gonna do
If you leave me
Where am I gonna go
Where am I gonna go
I wanna know, yeah

I've been in love with you
Since one and one has equaled two
So my darling, please explain
Oh, what am I gonna do without you

I don't want you to leave me, baby
Don't want you to ever go
Don't go nowhere, nowhere
Nowhere, nowhere, girl
Never, never, never let me go, baby
Please, don't ever leave me, girl...
