

P.S. Nevermind

The Wild Reeds

If life is life and fun is fun
What happens when the goldfish dies?
And all the people wanna hear
Is something that they recognize

I'm reckless, I did it, and I'll do it again
Now know we were to draw the line
I'm worn out, jaded, in over my head
Give 'em what they want this time

If all you have is all you told
Then how will you survive?
You screamed so loud, no one could hear you now
You just wanna see your name in lights

I'm reckless, I did it, and I'll do it again
Never know we were to draw the line
I'm worn out, jaded, in over my head
Just give 'em what they want this time
P.S. nevermind

What is the cost of all the things
Together I have lost when I was following my own desire?
Did I sacrifice a direct line to a God
When I installed and upgraded to satellite?
Did I sacrifice my wonder in order to know?
Did I give away the mystery
To have something to show for it?
Do I have anything to show for it?

I'm reckless, I did it, and I'll do it again
Never know we were to draw the line
I'm worn out, jaded, in over my head
Give 'em what they want this time
