

Recognize

The Wild Reeds

I had this great idea
That I could turn into someone new
He don't see me in a crowd
So I will change his view
And if he only sees with his eyes
Then I will make him recognize the truth
All the girls will see my insecurity
All the boys will take a second look at me
As I walk around with my heart racing
I will look for him like he is all I need
All I need

And when he sees my great appeal
He'll finally sense what I feel
And he will take my hand
And I will follow him
Follow him

All the girls will see my insecurity
All the boys will take a second look at me
As I walk around with my heart racing
I will look for him like he is all I need
All the girls will wonder what's wrong with me
All the boys will stop and say hey baby
Hey baby

Ain't it a girls way of messing up her pride?
Ain't it a woman's way of making it on the outside?
Well it ain't right
It ain't right
I will not agree to follow him
She cannot agree to follow him
While she's blind
I will not agree to follow him from behind
