

Eventually

The Wildhearts

My eyes have given up
My sense of sight is not enough
To find beauty in this shell
But you're free to run like hell

'Cause you don't hear the thoughts
Don't hear them, pound, pound, pound
Beating the corpse
Back in the ground, ground, ground

It's time to do the right thing
Are you listening?
There's no future in a state forged in time
Born of hate and the hate is mine

Eventually, it's gonna break your heart
Eventually, it's gonna tear us apart
Initially, you'll think I'm being over the top
Take it from me, it's gonna break your heart
Listen to me, I guarantee, you're gonna leave eventually

This heart is just rotten meat
I can try but there's still no guarantee
In time, you'll regret
Putting your faith in an emotional lottery

Feeling the tide dragging you down, down, down
Loss of flotation, you drown, drown, drown

Land mine, triggered underfoot
Are you listening?
There's no future in a state forged in time
Die too late and live to survive

Eventually, it's gonna break your heart
Eventually, it's gonna tear us apart
Initially, you'll think I'm being over the top
Take it from me, it's gonna break your heart
Listen to me, I guarantee, you're gonna leave eventually

A state forged in time
Die too late and live to survive

Eventually, it's gonna break your heart
Eventually, it's gonna tear us apart
Initially, you'll think I'm being over the top
Take it from me, it's gonna break your heart
Listen to me, I guarantee, you're gonna leave eventually
