

Lost

The Wind and the Wave

Oh whisky, water and an ambien
I guess today's another day we're still
At the bottom
At the bottom
Don't wanna die, but I could sleep
Don't wanna cry anymore, just keep it together
I tell myself

That I won't know where I'm going
If I don't know where I am
But I feel more
I feel more
Lost
I came running back to you
I came running back to you
Lost
Lost
I came running back to you
I came running back, running back to you

Lie awake until the sun comes up
And try to make sense of what's
On the inside
On the inside
As soon as I can move I'll go
I just wanted you to know
Everything hurts
All the time

And I won't know where I'm going
If I don't know where I am
But I feel more
I feel more
Lost
I came running back to you
I came running back to you
Lost
I came running back to you
I came running back, running back to you
You
And I won't know where I'm going
If I don't know where I am
But I feel more
I feel more
Lost
I came running back to you
I came running back to you
Lost
I came running back, running back to you

And I won't know where I'm going
If I don't know where I am
