

A Wish Away

The Wonder Stuff

Don't litter my streets
with your bad name
Don't tell the people that we're the same.
You've got no hope for the future,
so stop looking for someone to blame.
It's about time you learned to laugh again
It's about time you learned to grin,
Cos just closing your eyes at the things you despise, won't get you out of the great big mess you're in.

So, shake it like a shaking thing that you never had,
And try to make out life is good when life is something bad.
Spin 'round like a spinning thing that you've never seen, cos the best thing that you've got in life, is your EIGHT LEGGED GROOVE MACHINE... ahh grin.

It's about time you learned to laugh again
It's about time you learned to grin,
Oh the jokes run fast,
but the laughing stopped.
What a terrible mess we've gotten in.

Don't litter my streets with your bad name Don't tell all my friends that we're the same Cos you've never had fun and your life has just begun and you're walking around thinking you're the only one who's not got anyone left to blame.
