

Wyatt's Song (Your Name)

The Wonder Years

I recorded your heartbeat
It's 133
The tempo's in my blood now
I hum it when I'm lonely
I recorded your heartbeat
I stared at your knees
I wondered which one's gonna be
The bad one in your thirties

Then I drove you home
Listening to "God Only Knows"
When all that I know is

Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like
I'm half awake, caught in the way
You breathe at night
I'm low and I'm scared
But I'm on your side (I'm on your side)
Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like

I found glass in the garden
Dug it up with my thumb
I won't let you cut your feet
When you learn to run

But you learned to say, "Moon"
So, we waved from your room
He called to you like it might come to you

Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like
I'm half awake, caught in the way
You breathe at night
I'm low and I'm scared
But I'm on your side (I'm on your side)
Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like

I watched you sittin' silently
Starin' at your door
In all your little loneliness
I came in quiet and slept on your floor
And the green light from your smoke alarm
Flickers off and on
Like an alien abduction
Like a distant dawn

I've never been so afraid of failin' at anything
And I'm glad that you don't know how bad it is (How bad it is)
Well, I'm gonna go, start to dig, plant the seeds, keep the birds away
Gonna grow you a place safer than this

Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like
I'm half awake, caught in the way

You breathe at night
I'm low and I'm scared
But I'm on your side
Your name, your name, your name, your name's
The only one I like, oh
