The Wood Brothers

Do you remember the day you died
Did you wake up somewhere through some tunnel of light
Did you see anybody you used to know
Are you there with your mother and your friends and foes
Don't know why I'm asking
Cause I'm gonna be satisfied

I got nothin' left to be afraid of
Cause I will be satisfied

Can you have a cold one any time you please
Do you still listen to a love supreme
Who do you make love to speaking of love
Do you get all you need can you ever get enough
Don't know why I'm askin'
Cause I'm gonna be satisfied

Cause I will be satisfied
I'm gonna leave a big piece of heaven behind
And be satisfied

Are you there with the angels do they treat you kind
Do they fill up your glass with nectar and wine
Don't know why I'm asking
Don't tell me what happens
Cause I'm gonna be satisfied

Cause I will be satisfied
I'm gonna leave a big piece of heaven behind
And be satisfied
Be satisfied
Be satisfied
