

Sparkling Wine

The Wood Brothers

I heard the faint voice of reason
And then it faded away
So I raised my glass to her cheek and
Caught the tears she made

And I thought it was love
Thought it was love
But it's only a drug

That sparklin' wine
Gets me so high
Those beautiful tears
Of sparklin' wine

I'm a fool she's a flower
Just can't find the sun
I pick up all the pretty pieces
When she comes undone

And I thought it was love
I thought it was love
Yeah, but it's... it's only a drug

That sparklin' wine
Gets me so high
Those beautiful tears
Of sparklin' wine

Yeah
Hey

One look at those eyes and
My lips get dry
And I know I gotta stay
'Cause the only thing I can think about is Kissin' those tears away

And I thought it was love
I thought it was love
But it's only a drug

That sparklin' wine
Gets me so high
Those beautiful tears
Of sparklin' wine

That sparklin' wine
Gets me so high
Those beautiful, beautiful tears
Of sparklin' wine

Yeah sparklin' wine
Gets me so high
Those beautiful tears
Of sparklin' wine
