

The One I Love

The Wood Brothers

Dominican girl half my age
Satin skin and laughing face
Star white smile and strong brown legs
Do most anything she says

The one I love, the one I love
I go home to the one I love
I like a good temptress to stir my blood
But I go home to the one I love

Green eyes glimmer long red hair
Freckled nose and high cheeks so fair
Casts her spell with a scent of rose
Tells me I'm the one she wants to know

The one I love, yeah the one I love
I go home to the one I love
I like a good temptress to stir my blood
When I go home to the one I love

She goes out dancin' with all her friends
Spins around with all kinds of men
Comes home smilin' who knows where from
Cuz she knows, she's the one I love

The one I love, yeah the one I love
She comes home the one I love
And we both know that it's good to be us
She comes home the one I love

Yeah the one I love, yeah the one I love
I go home to the one I love
And I like a good temptress to stir my blood
But I go home to the one I love
And I like a good temptress to stir my blood
But I go home to the one I love