The Word Alive

You're all I have. You're all I have.
I can't decide
If I love it or hate it.
Now it's a part of me.
Warmer now,
I feel you within me.
It keeps creeping deeper.

It's not something you can prepare for.
I tried to fight it off,
You kept pulling me in.
I think I found that 'one in a million,'
And I can't breathe.

You're all I have,
And I haven't trusted anyone.
Finding out feeling isn't easy.
You're all I have.
This is more than I deserve, I know.
I've just go to believe.

You didn't seem to care
When I distanced myself,
So here's the real me.

You didn't seem to notice
When I looked away,
You wanted to show me how to believe.
How to believe.

You're all I have,
And I haven't trusted anyone.
Finding out feeling isn't easy.
You're all I have.
This is more than I deserve, I know.
I've just go to believe.

Feelings are a deadly thing.
When you fail,
You give yourself to something.
You may never know what it's like
To lose everything.

If I lost you, I'd lose everything.

Give yourself and you'll start to believe.
That there was meaning,
That you can trust what you see.
Give yourself and you'll start to believe.
That there was meaning,
That you can trust what you see.
You're all i have.

You're all I have,
And I haven't trusted anyone.
Finding out feeling isn't easy.
You're all I have.

This is more than I deserve, I know.
I've just go to believe.

You're all I have,
This is more than I deserve.
You're all I have.
Feeling isn't easy,
This is more than I deserve.
You're all I have.

You're all I have,
And I haven't trusted anyone.
Finding out feeling isn't easy.
You're all I have.
This is more than I deserve, I know.
I've just go to believe.
You're all I have.
