Like Father Like Son

The Word Alive

If you're not my blood, you are my bones. The only one I've ever known.

You showed me how to be a man. You don't know what you mean to me. So many secrets run through me.

Don't fuck with family! Don't fuck with family!

I've tried to be a better man For you will see that I've grown.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me. In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make you proud. Do you have regrets do you ever look back? Do you have regrets, don't look back.

The one I turn to. Nobody sees me as you do. You're always there.

You taught me all I know (you better me I know) You taught me all I know (you better me I know) I'm sorry for the times I made you sad I just want you to know that.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me. In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make you proud. Do you have regrets do you ever look back? Do you have regrets, don't look back. (Don't hold back, don't hold back!)

Many nights I laid awake trying to think of a way to say But the words just don't seem to escape. They get trapped at the start but the feelings won't fade. So here's a song to say I love you.

This is the one I hope will let you know I don't need blood but I need bones. You are my home.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me. In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make you proud. Do you have regrets do you ever look back? Do you have regrets, don't look back.

I don't need blood! I need bones!
