

Panic Vertigo

The Wrecks

And so it goes
I'm drinking whiskey by the pint
Helps my throat
'Cause I'm yelling all the time
At the TV
Tell me, do you think I'm going crazy?
Can we go back
'Cause I miss the way it was
Not so bad
Now I'm up against a wall
But don't worry
It's gonna make one hell of a story

When life's getting rough
And when I feel like giving up
When I'm falling in love
And when that love ain't enough
I'll say

Enough is enough is enough
I'm telling you
Enough is enough is enough
I've had it with this panic vertigo
Yeah, I gotta let it go
This panic vertigo

Yeah, shit got bad
I was barefoot on a bridge
Drunk and mad
Thinking, "What the hell is this?
Where'd I go wrong?"
I haven't been this terrified in so long
But life goes on and on
Yeah, I got hope in my heart
Yeah, life goes on and on
And I can feel in my soul
In my soul

When life's getting rough
And when I feel like giving up
When I'm falling in love
And when that love ain't enough
I'll say

Enough is enough is enough
I'm telling you
I've had it with this panic vertigo
Yeah, I've gotta let it go
This panic vertigo

Yeah, this panic vertigo
I just gotta let it go, go
I'm just trying to let this go, go
But what the hell do I know, know
What the hell do I know, know
Yeah what the hell do I know

When life's getting rough
I'll say

Enough is enough is enough
I'm telling you
This panic vertigo
This panic vertigo
This panic vertigo
This panic vertigo
I gotta let it go
This panic vertigo
I gotta let it go
This panic vertigo
