

Speed

The Wrecks

My heart is palpitating irregularly
Sometimes I wonder if my meds are taking me
I'm still depressed but now I'm
Now I'm depressed on speed
I wanna rage quit
Wanna say shit I don't mean
I wanna import fancy cars from Italy
I'm still depressed but now it's
Full speed ahead for me
It's Monday morning and
I'm closing the blinds to sleep

If I could run away I would
Make new friends, all new plans
Take my act to Hollywood
Just imagine what could happen
If I could run away, away
If I could run away I would
Just imagine what could happen
I wish I could

I'm so behind
My life's been catching up with me
I've been running the same load of laundry
Every other day for the past two weeks
I'm still depressed but you can
Bet your ass my clothes are clean
It's Monday morning and
I'm outside the pharmacy

If I could run away I would
Make new friends, all new plans
Take my act to Hollywood
Just imagine what could happen
If I could run away, away
If I could run away I would
Just imagine what could happen
I wish I could

(If I could run away I would)
If I could run away I would
Make new friends, all new plans
Take my act to Hollywood
Just imagine what could happen
If I could run away, away
If I could run away I would
Just imagine
If I ran away, ran away
If I could run away I would
If I could run away I would
Make new friends, all new plans
Take my act to Hollywood
Just imagine what could happen
If I could run away, away
If I could run away I would
Just imagine what could happen
I wish I could
