

Cosmic Dissonance

The Zenith Passage

Incoherent vagaries, Universal deconstruction, cataclysm of galactic matter From the substructure to summit
Celestial decay is imminent Cosmic dissonance resonates

Fragmentary shards coalesce impending eradication of entirety
Interplanetary destruction, the cold depths of space, nuclear fusions embody existence

Meteoric fractures are encased throughout the eternally flowing stream of life
The Foundations that formed the cosmos are crumbling like fractured rock
Explosions introverted

Cosmic dissonance resonates the unstitching in the fabric of space
Gravity strains, bending light
Matter dissolving, Space and time conclude to rewrite

Channeling all of energy, foresee certainty, our own end will be descending from the stars
The cold dead embrace of the bleak universe reaching our azure sphere

All parallel chronological epochs cease to be, as what is destroyed will only be reborn
From primordial merging of dark energy

Novas forming, all life forms embracing annihilation
Universal consciousness conclude by the definite forces speculated of creation

Incoherent vagaries, Universal deconstruction, cataclysm of galactic matter From the substructure to summit
Celestial decay is imminent, Cosmic dissonance resonates
