

Synaptic Depravation

The Zenith Passage

Gazing anguished
Into the abyss that doesn't stare back
To see all life unfolded
Observed in a scattered, thrashing wavelength
That is as meaningless as the constraints that define it
Immeasurably disappointing

At the forefront of the expansion of consciousness
We are marched towards an inevitability
A renaissance of nothingness
The vanguard of mediocrity
A celebration of the failing circuit

Unintelligible stimuli
A reaction without incitement
Creating an imbalance felt throughout every configurable possibility of realities

Targeted pacification to weaken the individual sense of self
The attrition of abstraction

Diminished organic filtering
Bottlenecked by faltering processes

Watch as the program runs endless cycles
Spiraling corrosive enchantment
Secluded synapse

Heralded foreboding of depravity
A static directive to infiltrate the mind
Deluge of ignorance in wake of forsaken admonishment
Imminent unknown atrocities buried in labyrinthine vacancies
