

Bombs Away

The Zolas

Rooftops, balloon that never pops
See-through hands with the middle fingers up
We numb, blurry vision
Flipping this city while we sipping helium

Oh hush, don't be precious
Talk to the hands, friend, we're just the glove
That hidden club where everything's plur
Pull out the building like a rotten molar

Living in a city of dotted silhouettes
Everybody's fading
Maybe we'll be next

So bombs away, we'll leave today
We'll find a place for all our friends
Bombs away, yeah, bombs away
We'll press eject and start again

I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting

We killer whales speculating from a black yacht
We killer whales, drink this city to the last drop
Never subtle, yeah, we always on caps lock
At the casino where we leave, it leaves an aftershock

In between jobs, in between her sobs
She can tell it's probable she'll always be a renter, yeah
Get to LA, get your stories straight, everybody great
Gotta be an influencer

But isn't it a pity how time is like a sieve
I'm in a city full of buildings where my friends used to live

So bombs away, we'll leave today
We'll find a place for all our friends
Bombs away, yeah, bombs away
We'll press eject and start again

I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting

La la la la la la laissez-faire
La la la la laissez-faire

But Isn't it a pity how time is like a sieve
I'm in a city full of buildings where my friends used to live

So bombs away, we'll leave today
We'll find a place for all our friends
Bombs away, yeah, bombs away
We'll press eject and start again

I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
I'm ghosting
