

Violence On This Planet

The Zolas

Feelings are gushing, you thought it'd hurt but it doesn't
You know there's no repercussions, they call it eurostepping
Over and over just keep on rolling that boulder
You are a thousand-leaf clover, you are a mythical being

Twenty and travelling yeah, you're rolling, unravelling
Super lonely and fathoming just how good that can be Nightmarket cruising I stuff my ears full of music
What did I do to be oozing such invincibility?

I get so high on it
The violence on this planet
I get so high on it
It's in the air

I get so high on it
The violence on this planet
I get so high on it
So high on it, so high on it, yeah yeah

Birth is like a lottery
Which nation, which family
Can't fault me when I'm overseas
A little flexing of that currency

I levitate home to the new world
New world 'cause it's new to me
It's a little weird but over here
Shit just rolls out in front of me

I'm supersized, I'm super clean
Grandpa's land far as I can see
Yeah he bodied out that thunderbird
Which I'm actually super into, aesthetically

I get so high on it
The violence on this planet
I get so high on it
It's in the air

I get so high on it
The violence on this planet
I get so high on it
So high on it, so high on it, yeah yeah
