

Sol Invictus

Thea Gilmore

Come the dawn, come the call

Come, the beating air

Chill the night, soldier light

We'll be dancing there

And rise up, rise up

Day stretching weary wings

Come the day, come the dawn

Somewhere it lays

Know my heart, know my life

Forget everything

Come the day, thief of the night

Lifts its voice to sing

Now rise up, rise up

Ever victorious

Know the time, know the light

Comes the sun again

Now rise up, rise up

Ever victorious

Know the time, know the light

Comes the sun again
