TheFatRat

Blindness and foresight
Lost in the songs of old
Frozen and timeless
Words that were carved in stone

Embrace the dark
The night is temporary
We dream and dance
The chaos holds us tightly
There's no return
I feel the seconds take me
We chase the light
And be forever maybe

Embrace the dark
The night is temporary
We dream and dance
The chaos holds us tightly
There's no return
I feel the seconds take me
We chase the light
And be forever maybe
