

Out of My Hands

Thelma Houston

Hey... mm-hmm...

The first time that I saw you
I got so weak inside
It looked as if you knew me, boy
And saw the part of me I hide
Like a little girl with you
I show my vulnerability
'Cause my emotions get all stirred up
As you bring out the woman in me
And it's...

Out of my hands, and into my heart tonight
I'm out of control, 'cause loving you feels so right
Try to hold back these feelings in me
But every time we touch, I can see
It's out of my hands, hey baby
It's out of my hands

When we're dancing in the dark
And you whisper in my ear
I swear you won't get to my heart
But my defenses disappear
I soon forget the talk I've heard about all your other girls
'Cause when I'm in your arms
You make me feel like I'm the only woman in the world
And it's...

Out of my hands, and into my heart tonight
I'm out of control, 'cause loving you feels so right
I can't hold back these feelings in me
'Cause every time we kiss, I can see
It's out of my hands, yeah baby
It's out of my hands

Don't you know that love is... oh
Baby, you know you leave me... breathless
When I'm lying in your arms, you know you turn me

Ana all my friends keep tellin' me
About all your other girls
But when I'm in your arms
You make me feel like I'm the only woman in the world...

Out of my hands, and into my heart tonight
(Don't do it to me)
I'm out of control, 'cause loving you feels so right
(Loving you feels so right to me, baby)
I can't hold back my destiny
What I am about to do, is let it be
It's out of my hands

(Out of my hands, and into my heart tonight)
Don't you know, don't you know it
(I'm out of control, 'cause loving you feels so right)
Loving, feels so good tonight, yeah
(Out of my hands, and into my heart tonight)

I can't hold back these feelings in me no more
Well, every time we touch, I can see baby
(I'm out of control, 'cause loving you feels so right)
It's out of control, it's out of control
It feels so right to me, baby, baby, baby
Woo-hoo...!
