

Dollar

Thelma Plum

Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
She says ain't got the time for the big boys
All lining up on their thrones
Who says daddy's little girl
Never likes to be alone

Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay

Everybody's asking, who's it to you?
I don't give a fuck cuz you're only asking cuz they're asking too
So how does it feel, if I ask you
Has your mum has your kids has your husband
In this place you're running to

Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
No way
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay

Say he's got a dollar
Say he's got a dollar

Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
Say he's got a dollar but a dollar won't make you stay
No way
I don't give a fuck cuz you're only asking cuz they're asking too
I don't give a fuck cuz you're only asking cuz they're asking too
I don't give a fuck cuz you're only asking cuz they're asking too
I don't give a fuck cuz you're only asking cuz they're asking too
