

light blue linen

Them & I

Tear at my seams
If you do I get it
You're trying to see what's underneath
The light blue linen

If I could waste
Another life
I'd spend my time showing you
I'd do you right

Well, you can hide years
Beneath your grin
But I don't think you know the last time
You just gave in

And you can hold tight
To wounds within
Just need you to know that I would never Do what they did

Cut
Or let it grow
I've given up
I'm yours to hold

Sink
Or let it fall
Give the rest
And get it all
