

Your Sigh

Them & I

There's a piece of me
Torn out with your sigh
Well babe, I know there's no hope
But, God, I wanna try

And if I don't, if I don't, if I don't Keep this flame alight
I need you to see, yeah
I need you to know I tried

Well, do I cross your mind?
Have you thought about me once?
And if not, it's fine
I think enough for the two of us

And I can drown, I can drown, I can drown
In the thoughts that form a sea
Instead I'll carve from my heart
And you'll always have a piece of me
