

Thief

TheOvertunes

Took me awhile to realize
That I was hypnotized
I can't deny your charm and your everything
Took me some time to believe

That you came to visit me
In my dreams, you look so real
Took a while to figure out
Where have you been all this time?

You're a thief, baby
Where'd you take my heart?
I'm gonna look for ya
I'm gonna chase ya
You're a thief, baby
Why'd you take my heart?
Once I got you, tell me
Why you're in my dreams
Once I got you, tell me
Why, why me?

Black on white, you're wanted
Written on the walls it ain't hard to see
You're running from the light, but you can't hide
Surrender yourself now, and answer me how

That you came to visit me
In my dreams, you look so real
Took a while to figure out
Where have you been all this time?

You're a thief, baby
Where'd you take my heart?
I'm gonna look for ya
I'm gonna chase ya
You're a thief, baby
Why'd you take my heart?
Once I got you, tell me
Why you're in my dreams
Once I got you, tell me
Why, why me?

In my dream, you silently
Came to steal my heart
Looking for something more
Just to steal my heart

Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my

Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my heart
Just to steal my

You're a thief, baby
Where'd you take my heart?
I'm gonna look for ya
I'm gonna chase ya
You're a thief, baby
Why'd you take my heart?
Once I got you, tell me
Why you're in my dreams

You're a thief, baby
Where'd you take my heart?
I'm gonna look for ya
I'm gonna chase ya
You're a thief, baby
Why'd you take my heart?
Once I got you, tell me
Why you're in my dreams
Once I got you, tell me
Why, why me?
