

30 Seconds

Therapy?

Hmi

I can feel you breathing and you're sticking to my skin

Hmi

Someone shut the morning up

Hmi

My conscience creeps back in

Hmi

I don't hear the words you say

Hmi

When you just come around

Hmi

I don't hear the words you say

Hmi

I just see you lie

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

Hmi

Bugged by a priest

Hmi

When you were seven years of age

Hmi

The age of understanding

Hmi

Came with blood and semen stains

Hmi

All your hope in politics

Hmi

Handed back yourself

Hmi

Is there anything as disgraceful I can see again

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

D

How did we get from the blue lamp disco

Hmi

G

To cracking up in San Francisco

I look at myself in a sober light

Hmi

I'm not Elvis but I'm alright

Hmi

I can feel you breathing

Hmi

When you tear me from within

Hmi

Unhinged and unravelled

Hmi

As you rip my fucking skin

Hmi

I can put my head back on

Hmi

but it's the wrong way round

Hmi

Feeling up the ladder

Hmi

You won't get back down

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

G

A

There's one thing that I should remember

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

G

There is a light at the end of the tunnel

Hmi

There is a light at the end of the tunnel
