

Pledging Loyalty

Therion

Born beneath the eastern sun, river nymph conceived me
God Surya, hear thy son, as I call to greet thee
Let me introduce myself:
I am Apollonius

Raise your people, raise them high
Slowly they are falling into boredom
Hear them cry, silently they're calling
Caesar, I am here for thee, pledging you my loyalty
I am Apollonius - insincere and devious
Showing who I am

Truly unbelievable
And so inconceivable
Insincere and devious

Join me, Apollonius
Everyone will follow on our path
When both of us reach a new tomorrow

You and I will be as one
Brothers on the human throne
