

Last Wave

They Might Be Giants

Saw that in a movie
I just fixed up the sound
Half of that is mine
Some of that was true
We die alone we die afraid
We live in terror we're naked and alone
And the grave is the loneliest place
We die alone we die afraid
We live in terror we're naked and alone
And the grave is the loneliest place

We die alone we die afraid
We live in terror we're naked and alone
Naked and alone

We die alone we die afraid
We live in terror we're naked and alone
Naked and alone

Last wave rolling by
Final wave don't ask why (I'm happy)
There goes a wave rolling by
Last wave

I'm so tired of waiting
My hear is cold
The sky is dark
I'm curled up in the ashes

We die alone we die afraid
We live in terror we're naked and alone
We die

If you want to make out with a biplane (No)
Perchance a dance with a carcass in space (No)
And now you got to buy me some antlers
Antlers are what I need you to buy
(Why?)
To take me down to the postman
(You do?)
Tell the postman to throw them to

Wave rolling by
Final wave don't ask why
There goes a wave rolling by
Final wave don't ask why
