

Gemini

THEY.

Gemini

You are such a sight for wandering eyes
Didn't take too long to realize
You are like my perfect kryptonite
-tonite, -tonite
Caught me by surprise
The devil in a beautiful disguise
I would follow you through wrong or right
Prolly shoulda let you pass me by Me by, me by

Should I stay or should I go?
I've been waiting on it so long
And she gimme sum'n to hold on
And to me, she can't do no wrong
Everywhere she goes, I linger
Got me wrapped around her fingers
She walked into my life and caused a fire
And disappeared into the night
Tell me, have you seen her?
In the 305, she ridin'
I can see our stars aligning
Something 'bout her is so enticing
I can't wait till I get behind it
She stay up on my mind
Tryna find a way to stay up on her good side
