

Moon

Thieves Like Us

Reach out and touch the sky identify the reason
I would indemnify and sacrifice you love
I let your memory die to bring another season

But if you should cry
I would tear down the moon
And if you should cry
I would tear down the moon

Reach out and touch the sky identify the reason
I have no alibi to provide to you
I could not sanctify the fortress that you gave me

But if you should cry
I would tear..
