

Stevie Ray Vaughan

Third Eye Blind

I never loved blues till Stevie Ray Vaughan
I never felt you till you were gone
And all of my shadows grow taller than trees
And all of my good means nothing to me

Don't let go
Never say I told you so yeah

If there was a word what i did to myself
And all the longing and nothing else
If there was a word for longing and peace
Until you give me some sweet release
Ohhhhhhhhhh
I'll let go
I'll let go, yeah

We can't say we didn't give it
We can't say we didn't try
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way
We can't say we didn't sing it
Every single night
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way
Well find another girl

And all of the statues that gate with the park
Day for life fall after dark
And all of my bones say just one more day
I didn't never threw it all away

We can't say we didn't give it
We can't say we didn't try
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way
We can't say we didn't sing it
Every single night
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way

I never loved blues till Stevie Ray Vaughan
I never felt you till you were gone
And all of my shadows grow taller than trees
And all of my good means nothing to me
Ouuuuuuuuuu
Yeahhhhhhhh
Ouuuuuuuuuu

We can't say we didn't give it
We can't say we didn't try
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way
We can't say we didn't sing it
Every single night
We can't say we didn't give it, all the way
Find another girl
Find another girl
Find another girl
