

G Train

Thirdstory

G train on the weekend, speed up or slow down
Gathering gathering, get off this train or you're gonna go back uptown
G train on the weekend, there's no way out
Traveling traveling, it's 2 am and I thought I'd be home by now

What am I doing this for?
I followed you to your door
I should've already known
To keep going on home

Love, I gotta warn you
Starting to catch onto
What you make me go through (get going or I'm gone)
I've been losing patience
Your mind is always changing
Back and forth, I'm waiting (get going or I'm gone forever)

G train on the weekend, hum and reload
A lullaby for the guy who fell down nearby cause he did a bit too much blow
G train on the weekend, just me and my head
Wondering why you deny my love when I keep on running back to your side

What am I doing this for?
I followed you to your door
I should've already known
To get going on home
You told me don't take it too fast
Cause you got an ugly past
I think I could help but you don't
Guess get going on home

Love, I gotta warn you
Starting to catch onto
What you make me go through (get going or I'm gone)
I've been losing patience
Your mind is always changing
Back and forth I'm waiting (get going or I'm gone forever)

I won't, I won't wait here
I won't wait here for you
I won't, I won't wait here
I won't wait here for you to get on board

Love, I gotta warn you
Starting to catch onto
What you make me go through (get going or I'm gone)
I've been losing patience
Your mind is always changing
Back and forth I'm waiting (get going or I'm gone forever)

Love, I gotta warn you
Starting to catch onto
What you make me go through (get going or I'm gone)
I've been losing patience
Your mind is always changing
Back and forth I'm waiting (get going or I'm gone forever)

I've been on a G train, in and out of Brooklyn
Come and let me love you, I could take you places
