

Crying in Denial

Thirsty Merc

I might go out today
And chase those clouds away
Cause life is so much better without her
And when the sun is shining
I'll put this down to timing
I'm looking forward to moving on
Yeah

But I'm crying
Crying in denial again girl
I'm crying
Crying in denial

And where last night she lay
It was well worth the wait
She's out of my life today and its rockin'
I guess I really should
A change will do me good
Sometimes things dont work out, I'm sorry

But I'm crying
Crying in denial again girl
I'm crying
Crying in denial

Take a chance
You never know
Where you'll be tomorrow
I can say
Its gone too far
And if I drive a crashed car
I'll break down
I'll break down

And I'm crying
Crying in denial again girl
I'm crying
Crying in denial

And the guns can find me
The sun can blind me
I tell my story cryin'
But if I say I'm alright
I'll be up all night
I'm lyin'
And the guns can find me
The sun can blind me
I tell my story cryin'
But if I say I'm alright
I'll be up all night
I'm lyin'
