

Spitting Out Teeth

Thirteen Senses

Come and tell me a joke
'Cos it's been quite a while since I last smiled
Can you level the cost
'Cos the price is rising much too highly

Trouble makes it all worthwhile

And it's free coming home after dark
'Cos inside it's free
And it's beauty

Ride an open road
'cos the policeman told us not to come this way
Make an early start
And temperature goes way over 90

Trouble makes it all worthwhile

And it's free coming home after dark
'Cos inside it's free
And it's beauty

Forget your mind
And sin a while it makes you more understanding
And how your gums bleed
'Cos you've been spitting out teeth for far too long

Trouble makes it all worthwhile

And it's free coming home after dark
'Cos inside it's free
And it's beauty
