

No Thanks

This Is A Standoff

Peace... what does that mean, they say peace.
It's cost is obscene.
Those angels are crying believe not what you see,
it's all greed, we all can cut through this before it's all done.
I can't believe what those fables are saying,
praying to gods while their brothers are slaying.
Throwing out people they say don't belong.
Posing for photos on their front lawn.
Invading all others while setting them free.
They say it's war crimes... i just can't believe.
Giving out guns while they're bailing out banks.
It's time we say as one no thanks, it's a shit, no thanks.
