

Settling the Score

This Is A Standoff

All alone, you were left out in the cold weren't you just telling me this tale.
Every time he begs for forgiveness and you take him back.
Honestly, I won't tell you lies but I won't look past this bull shit anymore.
Run this course 'cause it's all you need and you won't worry about settling the score.

Freedom failed, you stabbed me in the back again.
I should have seen the signs.
Everyone told me that this thing was impossible.
Shrieking cries, realize.

Honestly, I won't tell you lies but I won't look past this bull shit anymore.
Run this course it'll treat us well, and I won't stop you from waiting and settling the score.

Honestly I won't tell you lies but I won't look past this bulls hit anymore.
Let's run our course it'll treat us well.
And I won't stop you from waiting, crying, settling the score, we're settling the score.
