

Out Come The Bastards

This Is Hell

Confess your sins and if they're bigger than mine
We'll plead guilty for all of our crimes
Confess your sins and if they're bigger than mine
We'll all repent and do our time

Take me to heaven where the innocent lay
Ashes to ashes is what they'll say
Ashes to ashes and dust to guts
Bury my body in smoke and rust
It's all double talk and fucking double standards
While everyone carves their niches, somehow we're the bastards

Confess your sins and if they're bigger than mine
We'll plead guilty for all of our crimes
Confess your sins and if they're bigger than mine
We'll all repent and do our time
We'll do our time
