

Bad Feeling

This Is the Kit

Yeah, we're rolling, living outside now
Every moon has been chosen
We're doing alright now
Thought I'd say something, you'd be proud of me
Still selling someone I forgot at seventeen
Don't call me stupid
We all just need a little kindness
To reach back from those mistakes before they can find us
Alone 'til the stone bleeds
I will work everything out, show me

So long, so long, bad feeling
So long, so long, bad feeling

We're pretty ancient, that's what all the silence means
Speed runs the whole generation, torment of ease

So long, so long bad feeling
So long, so long bad feeling
