Dibs

This Is the Kit

We did not
Have dibs on
Both our hearts

Sucking the life out of you and out of me
Calling the blood back into our hands and feet
Oi, I'm talking to you, are you listening?
Calling the blood back into our hands and feet
Sucking the life out of you and out of me
Oi, I'm talking to you, are you listening?

Rest your head on my head
Rest your heart on my heart
Holding on to your arm
Rest your heart on my heart
Be okay, be okay
There's no way to stop this train

Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Let's pretend to not know that we're out of time
Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Don't pretend to not know that we're champions
Don't forget to tell me that we're champions

Felt it first
Knew it last
Both our hearts
Both our hearts
We did not
We did not
Have dibs on
Both our hearts

Be okay
Be okay
Be okay
Be okay
Be okay
Be okay

Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Since the beginning of time, man out of time
Since the beginning of time, man out of time
