

No Such Thing

This Is the Kit

Shrink away from it, flinching away from reality
Don't be fooled by them, everyone knows that there's no such thing
Stop and listen and let the pedestrian crossing the street
Do you know what you're cross about and that you're cross with me?

I do not see that, why should I see that?
Why should that be?
I did not say that, why would I say that?
That would not be

Different ways to be free, different times to be silently
You're not making this easy for us, would you leave it please?
Slowing everything down, laying out all your wants and needs
Giving into the fact that we all move at different speeds

I do not see that, why should I see that?
Why should that be?
I did not say that, why would I say that?
That would not be

Taking it on the chin, you must stay, you must march to this
(I do not see that)
Try relearning to move with this problem paralysis
(I did not say)
How much do you choose, choose to find, choose to lose, does it help?
(I do not see that)
Shove the rest of it up on the shelf, my delusion of self

I do not see that, why should I see that?
Why should that be?
I did not say that, why would I say that?
That would not be

Keep the current between you and me
Electricity
Keep the current between you and me
Electricity
Keep the current between you and me
Electricity
Keep the current between you and me
