

Well Versed In The Ways Of The World

This Providence

They hold it all together as i stand back in envy is there a hurting heart behind that smile a world of hurting hearts a few broken generations
"it's not safe, stay away from follow me's are everywhere in a world that lacks commitment you very quickly learn to justify your actions so follow the truth" but it seems like they've got it all and all i have is you they've got it all i have is you wait , how can i entertain these thoughts of life without you? i'm losing my mind and with that the love of my life i step out my door to a beautiful day and a world full of hate but i still hold on to a hope for you and me yeah i still i hold on to this foolish hope take it or leave it it's only a matter of life or death
take it or leave it it's only a matter of life or death
