

Never Believe

This Wild Life

Hello love, it's really been tough
How'd we ever make it out?
Hello love, I'll pick you back up
How're we gonna make it?

I feel so heavy, yeah I feel overrun
Wondering how you'll love me after all I've done
I swear I'm ready cause I don't wanna hurt anymore

I never believed in anything
Not even myself, heaven or hell
You've always been beside me
Through all of my tears all of these years
I never believed in anything until you

Hello love, it's never been easy
I'm as stubborn as they come
Hello love, whatever you need from me
I'm your only one

When you feel so heavy, when you feel overrun
I'll be by your side when you need someone
I swear I'm ready cause I don't wanna hurt anymore

I never believed in anything
Not even myself, heaven or hell
You've always been beside me
Through all of my tears all of these years
I never believed in anything until you

In your brightest highs, in your darkest lows
I'll be by your side, wherever you go
Through thick and thin, you can count me in
I'll be by your side, until our light no longer glows

I never believed in anything
Not even myself, heaven or hell
You've always been beside me
Through all of my tears all of these years
I never believed in anything until you
