

Positively Negative

This Wild Life

Never again you told yourself last time
Mind over matter I don't matter you don't mind
Never again you said for the third time
I try to quit her, I'm not a quitter I'm just

Positively negative, it helps to know you have regrets
Cause you rearranged the spaces in my head

Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
I know I'm breaking down, but now I'm breaking out
I'm catching my breath now
It's never too late to get away, so let's get away

Always the same, it never changes anyway
You rearrange your brainwaves every day
Always the same, you can't change it anyway
You overstayed your welcome, so get away

Positively negative, it helps to know you have regrets
Cause you rearranged the spaces in my head

Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
I know I'm breaking down, but now I'm breaking out
I'm catching my breath now
It's never too late to get away, so let's get away

One word answers and temper tantrums
I've pushed you off the edge
No more lessons or second chances
I've dragged us to the end

Positively negative, it helps to know you have regrets
Cause you rearranged the spaces in my head

Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
Is it too late to get away?
Cause it's not too late for me
I know I'm breaking down, but now I'm breaking out
I'm catching my breath now
It's never too late to get away, so let's get away
