

Still Standing in the Unknown

Thom Artway

Still standing in the unknown
A place hidden in shadow
All around the stars have just started to come down
Still nobody to follow
People singing 'bout tomorrow
And I'm trying to hide away

They cut your tree you are falling down
Now you can't stretch for the the stars ... just realize
Hold on
Tell me all the secret stories
You know
See my eyes
See my face
Or just run
Just run
And I'm
Passing along those stars
And they shine...
They're beatin' down on me
They cut your tree you are falling down
Now you can't stretch for the the stars ... just realize
Hold on
Tell me all the secret stories
You know
See my eyes
See my face
Or just run
Just run

Slow down
Tell me whats on your mind

And I'll build
Secret towers for you
And I'll fill
The barrels with mistrust
To show you
That I'm not going down
That I'm not going down
That I'm not going down
That I'm not going down

That I'm not going down
Still standing in the unknown
A place hidden in shadow
All around the stars have just started to come down
