

Look At The Tears

Thomas Anders

I know what I was doing was the wrong thing, baby
Give in to my desire for a night
Thought when the morning comes
Nothing will tell of the fire
But my guilt didn't fade with the light

Look at the tears this grown man cries
Rivers of hope fall from my eyes
Don't let it end, I'm on my knees
Stay, baby, stay, oh please

Now here I stand before you, girl, and have to hurt you
My heart's my witness, it didn't mean a thing
Believing me again
Must be so hard to do
Our love's a bird with broken wings

Look at me just once and break the silence, baby
I need your forgiveness like a tree needs the rain
So begin the forgetting, try if you can
Talk to your heart into loving me again

Look at the tears, I'm crying, girl
Don't let it end, I'm on my knees
Stay, baby, stay
Don't let it end, I'm on my knees
Stay, baby, stay, oh please, oh please
Stay, baby, stay, forgive me please...
Please
