

Sorry, Baby

Thomas Anders

Easy to dream
No one ever lies to you
Easy to fly
Never fall to Earth with you
Easy to love
Never feeling loneliness
And finding happiness
But you want no one else

I need you baby
You drive me crazy
You make me feel alive

Sorry babe for my words
I don't lie
Sorry babe but it hurts
You know why
Sorry baby for you lie
But it's true
Sorry baby please don't cry

Love you

Sorry babe tell me why
I don't know
Sorry babe easy come, easy go
Sorry baby, sorry baby
Sorry baby, sorry baby

Hard to give up
When you have dreams in your heart
Hard to give in
When you have love in your soul
Hard to survive
Never feeling justified
And being sacrificed
You need someone in life

I need you baby
You drive me crazy
You make me feel alive
