

Pretender

Thomas Day

Denim and salty hair
Walked in the room like you just don't care
You came out of nowhere God it was unfair
Gone in a flash like a blinking eye
I think of the past and I don't know why
Baby you're nowhere
But I still try to go there

I wish that we could run away together
Instead I'm running out of ways to let u go
I'm scared ill have to fake a smile forever but
Honestly I'll never be a great pretender

Now that I know what it's like in hell
It's seeing you out with someone else
Knowing you're happy
Knowing you have me
Wrapped around your finger
Like a wedding ring I never got to Give you but it's fine
You'll only live forever in my mind

I wish that we could run away together
Instead I'm running out of ways to let u go
I'm scared ill have to fake a smile forever but
Honestly I'll never be a great pretender

Ohhhh
Ohhhh
Ohhhh
Ohhhh

I wish that we could run away together
Instead I'm running out of ways to let u go
I'm scared ill have to fake a smile forever but Honestly honestly

I wish that we could run away together
Instead I'm running out of ways to let u go
I'm scared ill have to fake a smile forever but
Honestly I'll never be a great pretender
