

Sentimental

Thomas Day

Pretty face
Is this what you wanted?
The sun in May
Just look what you started
Close your eyes
Let me tell you a secret
I've realized
I know that I need it

I never knew that I would need your touch
Til I had to
Oh all I know is I won't give you up

I can't love you a little
I need more than just a taste
Just tell me that you want me to stay
God, I'm so sentimental
I cry when I look at your face
You're everything I want in one place

Ayyyyyyy
What a day to be alive
When I'm looking in your eyes

Golden skin
We rest til the evening
The UV hits
Whenever your near me
Take it in
Your blueberry perfume
What a hint
I thank God that I found you

I really hope you never hit and run
If you have to
Oh I'll be happy that my life begun
When I met you

I can't love you a little
I need more than just a taste
Just tell me that you want me to stay
God, I'm so sentimental
I cry when I look at your face
You're everything I want in one place

Ayyyyyyy
What a day to be alive
When I'm looking in your eyes
Ayyyyyyyy
You got me thinking I could die
When I'm drowning in your eyes

I can't love you a little
Just tell me that you want me to stay
God, I'm so sentimental

You're everything I want in one place

Ayyyyyy

What a day to be alive

When I'm looking in your eyes

Ayyyyyy

You got me thinking I could die...
